Privacy Policy

We do not collect personal information about you when you visit this website unless you choose to provide that information to us. You are free to browse this website anonymously.

Cookies

A ‘cookie’ is a small file that a website transfers to your computer’s hard disk, allowing the server to ‘remember’ specific information about your session. While visiting our website, you may encounter a page that employs cookies to make it easier to use the dynamic features of the page. You can set your browser to disable cookies or prompt you before a cookie is accepted. If you do not want to receive cookies, you will still be able to use our website.

Personally Provided Information

If you choose to provide us with personal information by sending an email, or by filling out a form with your personal information and submitting it through our website, we use that information to respond to your enquiry and to help us provide you with information or material that you request. If provided, personally identifiable information is maintained in a secure database. Only employees and contractors of Crane Services Ltd will have access to your volunteered information. We do not give, share, sell, or transfer any personal information to a third party, unless required to by law.

Website Usage Tracking

As you move around our website, certain information about your use of it will be recorded into a secure database. This may include your operating system, internet browser software or IP address. We will record what pages you view, how long you view them for and how many times you view them.

This information will be used to study usage of our website and allow us to monitor how effectively it works. We reserve the right to extend this tracking to include additional, non-personal information.

Links to Other Sites

We provide links to other Internet sites. Once you leave our site and visit another site, you are subject to the terms and privacy policy of the new site.
